This Application is a 371 of PCT/P05/05257, filed March 23, 2005 and claims priority to foreign application 2004-084810, filed March 23, 2004, in Japan.

Claims 9-14, 24-30, 40-51 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claims 1-8, 15-23, 31-39 are pending.

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-8, drawn to a method of measuring transcriptional activity in cells transplanted into a non-human animal model.

Group 2, claim(s) 15-23, drawn to a method of measuring the number of transplanted cells in a non-human animal model.

Group 3, claim(s) 31-39, drawn to a method of measuring tumor volume in a non-human animal model.

The inventions listed as Groups 1-3 do not relate to a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature of the groups does not make a contribution over the prior art. See for example Suarez-Pinzon et al., 2002, Cell Transplantation, 11: 519-528 who teach that adenoviral vector comprising a nucleic acid sequence encoding TGFbeta1 were transfected into islet cells. The cells were then transplanted into diabetic NOD mice. Suarez-Pinzon et al. teach that 85+/- 6ng of latent TGF-beta1 protein/500 islets/48 hours was secreted by adenoviral TGF-beta1-transfected cells (Suarez-Pinzon et al., page 521, under "Expression and Secretion of TGFbeta1 in Transfected Islets", see also Figure 2).

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Claim 3 of Invention 1 is drawn to specifically named SEQ ID NOs. and one must be elected. Each sequence is distinct because each comprises a distinct structure and biological activity.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1-8 of Invention 1 are generic for transcription regulatory factor-binding sequences.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
